

1. HIGH RISK FACTORIES:

a. All the factories identified and notified as Major Accident Hazard factories OR

b. All factories involving processes identified as Hazardous processes under Section 2(cb) and listed under Schedule(1) of The Factories Act 1948 and having Licence for employing more than 20 (Twenty) workers; OR

c. All other factories having Licence for employing more than 100 (One Hundred) workers; OR

d. All factories In which incidents of Dangerous Occurrences (Fire / Collapse of structure etc.), Fatal / Serious Accidents may have taken place during the past three years; OR

e. Factories against which prosecutions have been initiated by the Directorate or complaints have been received in the past three years:

2. MEDIUM RISK FACTORIES:

All factories not covered under the afore-mentioned High Risk Factories and having Licence for employing 21 (Twenty One) to 100 (One Hundred) workers.

3. LOW RISK FACTORIES:

All other factories not covered earlier.